2. In para 4 of G.O.No.1378-92/San 93-06-8 dated 10-8-1907 sanctioning the scheme for the constitution of a department of Public Health in the State, Government observed that "they have no doubt that the two City Municipal Councils and the Kolar Gold Fields Sanitary Board would readily agree to bear the cost of the Health Officers from their funds and requested the Presidents to place the subject before the Local Bodies concerned and submit their resolutions for the orders of the Government.

Subsequent correspondence and final orders in the matter are not readily traceable.

C

3. In para 2 of G.O.No.G.18997-9/San 73-17-6 dated 1-3-1919 the pay of the Health Officers was directed to be borne by the Local Bodies concerned and their pay was fixed at Rs 400-30-700

The Local Bodies were not consulted in the matter and the order was not addressed to the persons concerned Reference is invited to page 58 of the notes on San 73-17
